REVIEW OF THE MARKET, For the West ending Wednesday, Dec. 28.

THE RIVER is falling slowly with about six feet water in the channel becce to Louisville. The weather yesterday was mild and cloudy. Previously it was quite cold, and both Canals are firmly closed.

TREIGHTS—There was no boats for Pittsburgh yesterday, and quotations are nominal. To New Drienas we quare—Pork $1 30; Pitur $1; Whisky $1,50 and pound freight $6. To-8t. Louis, pound freight $5 cents.

Orleans we quare—Port $1 25; Piour $1; Whises $1.50 and pound freight $6. To $1. Louis, pound freight $75 cents.

The market, with the exception of those for Hogs and Provisions, have presented an extremity quiet appearance since our last weekly review, the holidays having had their usual effect upon trade, and in addition to this there has been a severe pressure in the money market, and the River has continued in a few stage—as low that freights have been suitained at a point sufficiently high to restrict shipments. In most articles, therefore, the movements have been unimportant, and in prices we shall have few changes to note in the following review, and for this reason our remarks will be confined within a smaller compass than usual.

ASME—Are dall, the low stage of water restricting the export demand, and if officed in any quantities previous prices could not be realized. We quote by a few of the previous prices could not be realized. We quote by the for $6 and $9 per centabove proof.

EDARE—Prices have declined to $10 per cord for chestnut cak.

BROOMIS—The receipts have continued moderate, and prices are firm, but unchanged. We quote $1.50 to $2.50 for good common to extra fancy qualities on arrival; with sales from second hands at $1.50 to $2.50 for good common to extra fancy qualities on arrival; with sales from second hands at $1.50 to $2.50 for good and prime qualities in cloths. Firkin and long remain quite dull at 106,125%. Received during the week $4.50 bits and $2.00 firkins and kegs, which are supplies. Eggs are selling at 166,180 % dos.

BUCKETS—The market has not undergone any change. The demand is moderate.

GANDLES AND SOAP—Candles are in good demand and firm at $2.00 to $1.00 for star, and 156,116 for common and pressed tallow. Soap $5.60 for No. 1 and extra.

COYPEE—Under the influence of continued favorable advices from the Brazilian and domestic, mar.

common and pressed tallow. Cosp viscosity and extra.

COFFEE—Under the influence of continued favorable advices from the Brazilian and domentic market, the market has been very firm during the week, and prices gradually tending upward. The sales comprise about 50% bags, closing at 12% for common and 12% 613 for good to prime. Bio; in the small way hoders obtain 15% for prime. The demand is not active, however, and purchasers continue to operate sparingly; still their stocks are becoming gradually reduced, and there is a good business doing in the small way.

ILEESE—The market remains dull, but advices from the East, and also from New Orieans have imparted an improved feeling to holders. This, however, is hardly perceptable from the current movements either as regards sales or prices. We quote 8% for new and 8c for prime WR, and II to 12% for English Deiry and Durham Farm. Received during the wock 12,985 horses.

new and % for prime W R, and It to 12% for English Dairy and Durham Farm. Received during the work 12.9% boxes.

MCOOPELLAGE—A demand for Pork bbls from abroad enable holders to realise improved prices, during the week $1.45 having been the prevailing rate, and this we now quote as the current price for prime barrels. Flour bbls have declined ane are dull at 35c; Lard kegs $6c; Whisky bbls $1 10821 15, Received during the week $555 pes of all descriptions.

OUTTON—Receipts have increased somewhat, and stocks are now tolerbly ample, and well assorted, but very little business has been transacted during the week and we can only quote $50.00 as the range of prices, embracing inferior and good middling. Received during the week $10 bales.

OUTTON YARNS—There is no demand except from the regular retail trade, but prices remain at 16c for assorted numbers.

colved during the week #10 bales.

OOFTON YARNS.—There is no demand except from the regular retail trade, but prices remain at 10c for assorted numbers.
